

UPlus Group Income Protection Claim Form

IMPORTANT: READ BEFORE CLAIMING

WorkCover VS Income Protection

Make sure you're claiming the right benefits

If you've been injured or become ill due to your work (even if the event or diagnosis occurred outside of work), you may be eligible to lodge a WorkCover claim.

While income protection insurance provides valuable financial support, it's important to understand the differences between WorkCover and income protection to ensure you're accessing all the benefits available to you.

WHAT WORKCOVER PROVIDES THAT INCOME PROTECTION DOESN'T:

WorkCover includes a range of benefits that income protection does not. These may include:

- > Medical & like expenses – WorkCover covers treatment costs, while income protection does not.
- > Hospital cover – Included under WorkCover but not income protection.
- > Rehabilitation & return-to-work support – WorkCover requires employers to assist with return-to-work plans, including suitable duties. Income protection does not include this requirement.
- > Emergency ambulance services – Covered under WorkCover, not under income protection.
- > Lump sum compensation – WorkCover may provide lump sum payments for permanent impairment or disability, which are typically not included in income protection.
- > Benefit period – WorkCover can provide long-term support (up to 5+ years in some cases), whereas your income protection cover has a maximum benefit period of 104 weeks.
- > Common law damages – WorkCover may allow for compensation due to loss of future income, unlike income protection.
- > No waiting period – WorkCover has no waiting period, whilst income protection policies will typically have applicable waiting periods.

Note: This is not a complete list of WorkCover benefits. You may be eligible for additional entitlements depending on your circumstances.

GOOD NEWS: YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO BOTH

Many income protection policies, including UPlus, can work alongside WorkCover. If you lodge a WorkCover claim first, your income protection can top up your salary. Depending on the UPlus options your employer has chosen your top up amount will be between 80% and 100% of your usual income including all overtime and allowances.

Before proceeding with your claim, take the time to consider your options to ensure you don't miss out on valuable benefits.
